

Piedmont Psychiatric Center Physicians

Child/Adolescent Psychiatrists

Jaime Bamford, M.D.

Dr. Bamford completed her medical degree at George Washington University and her residency and internship in pediatrics and psychiatry at the University of Kentucky.

Preston Bond, M.D.

Dr. Bond received her medical degree from Eastern Virginia Medical School. She completed her residency in psychiatry and fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry at Wake Forest University. She is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology with certification in child and adolescent psychiatry.

Kara Rooney, M.D.

Dr. Rooney obtained her medical degree from Loma Linda University. She completed her residency in psychiatry and fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry at Medical University of South Carolina. She is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology.

Licensed Clinical Psychologists

Miranda Breit, PhD

Dr. Breit received her PhD in Clinical Psychology from New York University. She is certified by the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy and the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists. She specializes in couples issues, psychological testing of adults and children, and collaborative divorce coaching.

Stacey Felmlee, PhD

Dr. Felmlee received her PhD in Clinical Psychology from George Mason University. She specializes in psychological testing, ADHD evaluations, therapy for adolescents and young adults, behavioral disorders, depression, and parenting issues.

Frank Selden, PhD

Dr. Selden received his PhD in Clinical Psychology from the University of Georgia. He specializes in individual child and adolescent psychotherapy as well as family therapy, treating depression and anxiety, reactions to trauma, development issues, school-based concerns, parenting issues, and sport psychology.

Gary Sibcy, PhD

Dr. Sibcy received his PhD in Clinical Psychology from Union Institute and University. His specialty areas include cognitive therapy for treatment of depression, anxiety, trauma and trauma-related disorders, attachment disorders, and therapy for explosive children and their families. Dr. Sibcy has coauthored three books: Attachments, Why You Do the Things You Do, and Loving Your Child Too Much.

Piedmont Psychiatric Center Physicians

General/Adult Psychiatrists

Peter Betz, M.D.

Dr. Betz completed his medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia, his internship at Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center and his residency in psychiatry and fellowship in geriatric psychiatry at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology in geriatric psychiatry.

Kenneth E. Fore II, M.D.

Dr. Fore received his medical degree from the University of Saint Eustatius School of Medicine. He completed his psychiatric residency at Michigan State University where he served as chief resident.

James Gallagher, M.D.

Dr. Gallagher obtained his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin Medical School. He completed his internship at John Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in internal medicine and his residency in psychiatry at John Hopkins Hospital. He is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology.

Michael Judd, M.D.

Dr. Judd received his medical degree from Ross University School of Medicine. He completed his internship in psychiatry at the University of Virginia and his residency in psychiatry at the UVA Roanoke/Salem Psychiatric Medicine Program. He is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology.

John Wilson, M.D.

Dr. Wilson obtained his medical degree from the University of Illinois. He completed his internship in internal medicine at the Gundersen Medical Foundation and his residency in psychiatry at University of Iowa Hospitals. He is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology.